Whether is was screaming our lungs out at the pep rally, dancing the night away at school dances, or studying for hours for a chemistry test, we "owned every second that this world could give." It feels like yesterday when we walked through the front door for the first time feeling that all eyes were on us. Today we wonder what the future will bring. We broke bonds and created new ones with people that started out just as another person walking through the halls. Memories were created with a simple "hi" to the new person that sat next to you in Mr. Skeffington's Math class. Throughout our years at school, we would spend Friday nights cheering on our fellow Tanners under the lights at Connolly Stadium, climbing up Horn Pond mountain to see the Boston skyline, or taking numerous and trips to Chipotle. We saw so many places and experienced life lessons that will forever keep us connected. With every passing moment, I hope you say, "I swear I lived."

Horn Pond mee... and trips to Chipotle. We saw so many places life lessons that will forever keep us connected moment, I hope you say, "I swear I lived."

Welcome to Woburn, where the days and nights are always filled with frequent visits to Horn Pond, Rag Rock, Bill and Bob's, Nanabett's, Breakers, and so many other places.

Whether you have lived here all of your life or just moved in, you will find Woburn a unique city. We are located about twelve miles northwest of Boston and if you climb the top of Horn Pond mountain you can even see the beautiful Boston skyline.

We were first settled in 1640 thus making Woburn one of the oldest and most historic communities in New England.
Our population of 38,000 is spread out into several sections of the city; South End, Four Corners, Central Square, East Side, West Side and North Woburn.

Demand for shoe leather during the Civil War gave Woburn's leather industry a huge boost to twenty one leather tanning establishments hence our mascot name of "Tanners.".

We embrace the history that surrounds our city whether it is the The Woburn Public Library which is a national historical landmark; Colonel Loammi Baldwin who was known as the Father of American Civil Engineering; Sir Benjamin Thompson, known as Count Rumford who was a famous scientist and inventor; and Charles Goodyear who invented vulcanized rubber.

Our pride carries from our school to our city everyday.

Life

New England

Living in New England is an unique experience due to the types of weather. The saying "If you don't like the weather, then wait a minute." is so true. One day, it could be 80 degrees and the next day it would be snowing. Where would we be without the harsh winters, crisp fall air, green spring growth and hot sweaty summers?

In the summer, we would swim all day long and eat ice cream to our delight just waiting for the evening sunset filed with pink and orange streaks. The fall brought weekend field trips with friends for apple picking and watching the annual Halloween Parade. The crisp autumn breeze along with sounds of leaves crunching below our feet constantly remind us how lucky we were to live in New England.

On cold bitter winter mornings when we were lying in bed we hoped to get a twitter message with a no school message. When our snow day wish was granted we would gather at the Joyce to take advantage of the tons of snow for sledding.

Spring gave us day light savings which allowed us to have sun filled days where we could practice our sports right outside on the turf. The long days gave us a little reminder that summer was approaching and soon enough another school year would end and we would start all over again.

WORDS OF WISDOM

Wherever you go in life, perhaps you will remember one of these many words of wisdom from your teachers ... I've learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel...When the power of love overcomes the love of power, the world will know peace..."Winners forget they're in a race--they just love to run... Living the dream....LIFE IS GOOD, It's OK if you are not perfect, it's not OK if you don't try for perfection... When people show you who they are, believe them....Carpe Diem...The obstacle is the path...The universe is not only stranger than we imagine, it is stranger than we can imagine...Still waters run deep...Today is the day to follow your heart...If you are not willing to look stupid - nothing great is ever going to happen to you..It's not whether you get knocked down, it's whether you get up It's better to fail and try than fail to try...Check Edline..Everything happens for a reason...I'm working on it...Joy does not simply happen to us... We have to choose joy and keep choosing it every single day...One kind word can change someone's entire day ...Be kind, for everyone you meet is fighting a harder battle... Fire bad, tree pretty... Everyone is a genius... But if you judge a fish by its ability to climb a tree, it will live its whole life believing that it is stupid... Bond. James Bond.... You get what you give... Anyone can steer the ship when the sea is calm... It is better to light one small candle than to curse the darkness...Common sense is very uncommon... Mark Twain Better to remain silent and be thought a fool than to open one's mouth and remove all doubt...It could be worse... It could be raining... You can lead a horse to water but you can't make it drink.... A goal without a plan is just a dream...Life is a journey, not a destination....The farther backward you can look, the farther forward you are likely to see...Be yourself; everyone else is already taken... Set a concrete goal for yourself, even if you think it's impossible. Nothing is impossible for a man with faith...Great minds discuss ideas; average minds discuss events, small minds discuss people... It is not the strongest of the species that survives, nor the most intelligent that survives... It is the one that is most adaptable to change...Life is what happens while you are making other plans.. It is what it is...Live Long and Prosper...When I was 5 years old, my mother always told me that happiness was the key to life. When I went to school, they asked me what I wanted to be when I grew up. I wrote down 'happy'. They told me I didn't understand the assignment, and I told them they didn't understand life... It is not in the stars to hold our destiny but in ourselves. "Talent wins games but teamwork and intelligence win championships...Knowledge is two kinds: we know a subject ourselves or we know where we can find information upon it.

DEDICATION

Mr. John Donovan

The Class of 2016 wishes to dedicate our edition of the yearbook to Mr. John Donovan. Mr. Donovan has inspired students in the foreign language department since 1984 when he joined the faculty to teach French and Italian classes. As a graduate of Woburn High, he is all too familiar with the school culture. Over the years, he has chaperoned many school foreign exchange programs to Europe. He also has a secret talent for singing and plays the organ for special occasions. Mr. Donovan is admired for his wonderful sense of humor, quick wit, and down-to-earth personality. He is respected for his professional attitude and the genuine care he has for his students. We wish him many more years of stories for the students at Woburn High.

THANK YOU

The Climb

Elementary school began and our cartoon filled mornings came to an end. Our backpacks were filled with crayons and lunch boxes, which ended up weighing more than us. We walked hand in hand with our parents down the hallway, anticipated to see our classroom. We ran around on the playground, scrapped our knees, and played kickball with big smiles on our faces. The only stressful part of our day was getting spot on the rug for nap time.

Our most shocking transition was moving onto middle school and realizing that snack and nap time no longer exist. As a middle student, we encountered the most awkward years of our lives, as we tried to figure out who we were while trying to fit in. When you look back at the pictures, you start to wonder, "What was I wearing?" or "What was I thinking?" We were introduced to more people outside our elementary school circle and began to expand our friendship circle. The idea that boys and girls have "cooties" no longer existed. The addition of friendships at middle school also brought new freedoms, such as a later bedtime, but also the thought of being more independent, such as getting your homework done. The idea of high school and starting the next chapter in our life was right around the corner.

As June approaches, people were just trying to make it through the dreaded finals in order to make it the fun pool parties. Everybody screamed with joy as the bell rang at 1:51 on the last day of school. We looked forward to the pool parties with our friends and the fun filled sleepovers. We spent many of our hot summer nights at Breakers and watched the sun set over Horn Pond. Woburnites traveled 45 minutes to enjoy the summer heat and tan at Good Harbor Beach or walked through the center to see some of the faces you missed from the school year. Summer in Woburn gave us so many countless memories that we could hardly wait until next summer!

FRESHMAN YEAR Changes

Freshman year has come, you take a deep breath and walk through the door, you look down and see the bright Tanner Pride symbol glistening at you as you walk into the next four years of your life. You ponder the friends that you will meet. Will you stay with your friends from middle school or venture off to find a new group? Years of opportunity are ahead of you, joining sports, clubs, and academic activities. The next four years hold memories of screaming for your fellow Tanners, dancing the night away at dances, and making friendships that will never last a lifetime. You wonder, where is my place in this gigantic school?

Aamir Khan gets his first taste of high school. Skyla Insogna and Olivia Gately share a laugh while decorating together. Down the side, Marco Armas, Jennifer Bridge, James Tortorici, Ariana Tzovaras, and Travis West smile for the camera. Sean Doughty, Jacob Stoico, and Sarah Harkins all join the rest of the class in the auditorium along with Michelle Miller and Keeley Pavlik. Jill Moscko waves excitedly. Natalie Charprazian shyly smiles for the camera with Kristine Danielson behind her. Then Jean, Alexis Santiago, Emilee Crocker, and Nicholas Farfaras pose for frshaman year pictures. Above, Madeline Dimauro rolls on the floor laughing.

Gabriella Borselli, Sydney Bennett and, Jenniter Bridge are enjoying their first day of high school. Cameron Piazza, Brandon Moscat, Joseph Gratton and, Christopher Kenton have entered their first Homecoming dance and are ready to expience all of the excitement. Keara Sullivan, Tiffany McLaughlin, Doug Huynh, Edwin Mendez, Kelsi Squires, Joseph Gratton, Melenick Im, Danielle DiFrumolo, Abigail Parker and, Nicole Speros pose after decorating their hall for Spirit Week. Below them Dean Baker, Christina Wierzbicki and, Nicholas Camacho all dress thier best for their first high school picture day.

Teacher's

Jake Carbone, Matthew Catizone and, Julia Carey walk into their first day of school nervously. Maria Ferraguto hugs a friend on a much anticipated first day of high school. Evan Bowe-Willett, Gabe Soares and, Benjamin Sulesky are excited to go to their next period class as they leave gym class. Austin Littell, Joshua Tschour and, Eric Martin anxiously sit in their assigned homeroom seats and wait for their schedules. The nerves have not quite hit Claubert Mallebranche yet, he is as confident as ever on his first day. Candice Bishop and Aimee Heck try to memorize their schedules at lunch. Stefan Karayan and Morgan Bishop give a thumbs up for the end of the week. Patrick Hurley anxiously await to give their speeches for class officer.

dance

The anticipation grew as the months went on and the date still had not been decided on. Unfortunately, the freshmen dance kept on getting cancelled due to typical New England weather of snowstorms and hurricanes. "Freeze to the Spring Fling" finally ended up being a night where you could put away the jackets and umbrellas on a hot summers night. All the girls dressed in their favorite dance outfits and the guys were decked out in their best shirt and tie. Everyone was so excited for our first ever high school dance as a class. We all gathered in the school foyer and danced the night away to the DJ playing Wrecking Ball, We Can't Stop and Trouble. This dance set the tone for the rest of our high school career.

Stressed Out

It was the best of times; it was the worst of times. We all were so nervous for the journey that we were about to embark on called junior year. Although stressed, no more underclassmen shenanigans. The upperclassmen status had finally been reached. Junior year was all about being intense and really showing what you've got. We all dreaded Junior year because of what we heard from older peers. From keeping up with our classes, sports, clubs, college stress, and so much more, we still managed to make it through junior year. This is where we finally begun to realize that we are actually going to college soon. We started touring colleges or making other planes for the future. Where we would once just think about what our plans were for tonight, we instead had to start thinking long term and think about what we will do with our

NightReme | E

It is finally the day, April 4th 2015. We've prepared for months, dates, dresses, tux rentals, shoes, hair appointments, seating, transportation, flowers, and many other arrangements. Sitting in school it is easy to tell today is prom day, every girl is in sweatpants and impatiently waiting for their 11 o'clock dismissal. School felt like forever but getting ready the time seems to fly by as the junior class fixes their ties and puts the last bits of hair spray into their 2 hour updos. We are finally ready for the madness to begin. Getting pictures with all of our friends and favorite classmates is a must, leading to gatherings at houses and the O'Donnell foyer. Upon entering the Hilton Hotel, we ride the glass elevator up to the ballroom, where the fun begins. There are joyful greetings and much anticipation for the mediocre food and hours of dancing to come. Soon we all begin looking around at who wore what and who everyone came with. After dinner we collectively hit the dance floor in a wild craze. Popular songs including Uptown Funk, Cheerleader, Can't Feel My Face, and Four Five Seconds. Every time one of these played it would result in muffled screams followed by every mouth in the room singing along. We leave with tired feet and smiles from ear to ear. Junior Prom, what a night

Howfar We've » Come

Every beginning has an end. But, you probably already realized that a while ago. Your journey and time in high school neared its end, the finish line in sight. It certainly left you in a sort of ironic situation, being ecstatic to be a senior, finally on top of the high school social ladder, but also sad, that the greatest times of your youth were now leaving you. But you put that aside. Senior year was your time to go all out, to leave your mark, to leave high school feeling satisfied with your time spent there. There were the dances, the football games, but also such newcomers as the Holiday Dance, Senior Prom, and the big kahuna, college applications. Bring. It. On. Senior year was a year of tying up loose ends and finishing strong. Which brings another cliched saying into the mix: It isn't about how you start, it's all about how you finish. And so you thought, "Bring on the colleges, the dances, the school events, and tell them I want in." Especially college, here it was! The big finale, the culmination of all four years of your work in high school. It seemed like it was only yesterday that you started high school, and here was college just around the corner. Ironically, what seemed like such little time, held so many memories, you would never forget the time spent with your friends, trips with your family, classes with your favorite teachers. So the final year has arrived. Make the most of it, there will never be a time like it ever again.

Jenny Bourque

"I would tell myself that grades don't matter as much as I think they do and that I'll still get into college. Also to be less pretentious because we're all in the same boat. I should have seen most of my classmates for the awesome humans they are dude.

Cameron James

"Don't write anyone else off as they may become a big part of who you are and who you may become."

Tabitha Jones

"I would tell my freshman self to focus on school and not worry about making friends. Also I would say to make high school the best 4 years of my life."

Matthew Dimauro

"As a freshman I was really looking forward to being a senior but now I'd be like Billy Madison and say 'Stay here. Stay here as long as you can. For the love of god, Cherish it."

Holiday Dance Tis the Season

It's the most wonderful time of the year – family, friends, giving presents, lights, and for us seniors – the holiday dance! We celebrated our last dance in the high school lobby on December 4th, 2015. The lobby was decked with holiday tinsel and lights. We all showed up dressed in our favorite shimmering holiday colors. We spent the night dancing to current pop hits and holiday music from DJ Wild Bill among strobe lights, glooming necklaces, and taking memorable photos. The holiday dance was a perfect way for the seniors to kick off the holiday celebrations!

Junior year snow days

Junior year we were knee deep in snow days. We stayed up late and woke up even earlier to check our Twitter feeds for news of cancelation. With the excessive tweeting sometimes we believe it paid off. Shayla Parker, Mollie Fraser, and Christina Langone enjoying one of the many snow days,

Friends mkae or break your high school experience. From laughter to frowns our friends were there for us. New to old strangers to best friends they helped shape our high school experience. Nichelli Squilliciotti and Excitement from the activities committe to get Rachel Fallon hang out during lunch.

Spirit Week

out of class to fill the hallways with black and orange decorations. A different themed day for each day of the week to show off Tanner Pride. Nam Nguyen and Candice Bisahop use streamers to decorate the hallway.

All the students and staff gathered in the gym to display their school spirit and get rowdy. Each class competed to see who has the most school spirit, obviously Class of 2016 won.

Open Campus

Open campus was the highlight of a students senior year. Who doesn't love to get out of school an hour early?

Teacher Contracts

The teacher contract conflicts were the root of many students' problems. Are you applying to college? Do you need help in your AP classes? Hopefully by our tenth reunion the contract will be settled.

Thankgiving Day

pame The traditional rivalry game, Winchester vs Woburn. This game brings the two communities together every year.

Middlesex championships

Junior year: the year of champions. The sports excelled and surprised many people with our winning titles.

May we use the bathroom?

The countless antics that the Class Of 2016 pulled resulted in the bathrooms being locked. Thanks to Alex Palidinos letter to the superintendent our bladders were saved.

Anyone remember the Freshman Freeze that turned into a Spring Fling? The date wad changed nurmerous times because of the snow. This resulted in a final decision of a spring dance to evoid further snow delays.

Senior Cafe

The senior cafe gave the seniors a sense of power. The four steps that lead up to the cafe symbolize the adventurous years we have had

Fan sections

Superfans pile onto the designated student section every home football game. Students spill into the aisles it is so packed. Fans chant words of encouragement to their team and also often not so encouraging words to their opponents.

Dances

The day all airis-eream of setting all dressed up looking their best. From homecoming to senier Prom, all dances are heavily talked about and well anticipated. Music was provided by DJ Dan. Great music and great people call for a great night.

Move up day

Ready for summer? We first had to meet our senior year teachers and classmates. Walking into new classes either created smiles or worrisome looks.

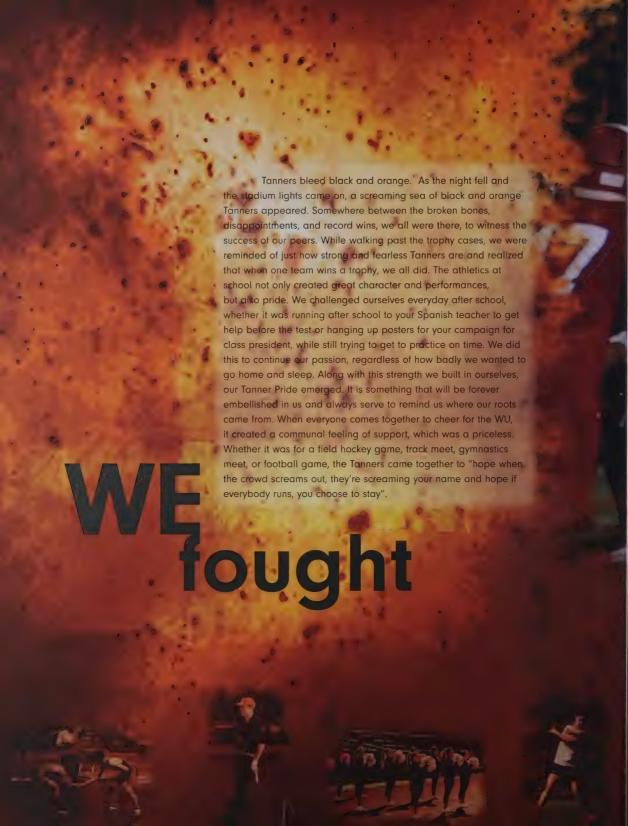

Mandatory gym

short end of the stick. We were the first class forced to take a physical education class. On the bright side, it felt like we were kids again having recess.

Class officers

Students loved the the fact that they can elect who they want to plan proms and reunions. Senior year it means more than just getting out of class. The memory of Shane Fitzgerald beating Joseph Gratton will forever live on. Joseph planned our freshman dance, sophomore semi, and junior prom but he had to step down from his reign to let Shane plan our reunions.

Fashion

Olivia Gately models comfy chic look with a over sized sweater leggins and duck boots. Kristy Mukunga is styled in jeans, a trendy head band and funky vest with a statement necklace. Gianna Caldwell rocks a scarf with a flowy shirt sock bun and legginings.

Technology

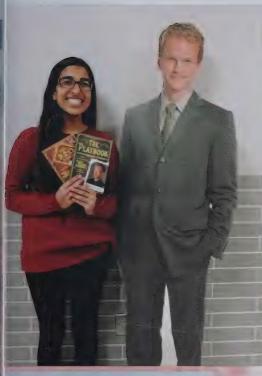

Mia Flaherty brings her lpad to school to take notes, google things and browse Pintrest.

Food

Julia Carey shows us her favorite place to eat which is the 99 restraurant. With two locations there is much debate over which is better, east side or four corners?

Celebrities & Movies

Janki Patel's favorite celebrity is Neil Patrick Harris who she says is an all around likable person and great actor. Below Humera Shaikh demonstrates how her favorite movie is The Hunger Games with the three finger symbol the protagonist Katniss Everdeen uses to symbolize support throughout the movie.

Superpower wishes

Our four years at school flew right past us, as we created memories we will never forget with our classmates. Whether it's the laughter with friends, tears from seeing our report card. doubts about ourselves, or smiles about our academic and athletic accomplishments, we created experiences we will never forget. We were finally at the moment in time that we thought would never come, the end of our school career Faces that you see everyday in the hallways now become faces you would see on Facebook. School gave us the best and most challenging times of our lives while making us who we are today. We are all leaving school with life lessons that will quide us for the rest of our lives, which is something we shouldn't take for grant it. It was strange, saying goodbye to something that we have spent almost everyday of our teenage lives at, but we are moving on to the next exciting chapter in our lives. We "hope that when you take that jump, that you don't fear the fall." Everything leading up until this point helped created the person who we are today. We took advantage of our high school experience for all four years, and we hoped when that moment comes, we'd say, "I did it all."

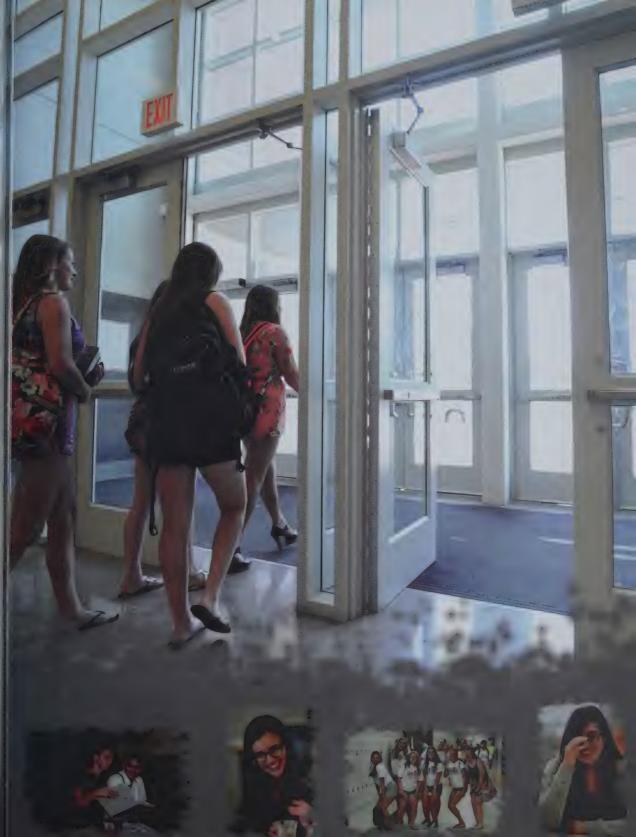

we hoped when that moment comes, we'd say,

We're all in this

what we'll miss

Designing Yearbook

1.Spring Traning

The yearbook advisors chose our staff in April of our junior years. Susan Happel, our rep from Herff Jones Publishing spends two days training us on the InDesign software.

2. Cover Design

We spent many hours brainstorming ideas on the theme of the book and discussed what we wanted to be remembered for our class. Our cover artist Ashley did an outstanding job.

3. Page Design

We worked as a team and everyone brought their own creative style to each page.

4.Taking Pictures

As soon as we walked into the door freshman year our lives were photographed and archived in the yearbook room.

5.Creating Layouts

Accomplishing this feat was amazing as every page of the book is decided on before hand. We worked in homeroom and period seven everyday.

6. Writing

We tried to make sure everything was spelled correctly with every i was dotted and t crossed.

7. Off to the Plant

Pages we sent via computer to the plant in Kansas. Each photo is color corrected and all pages are check for accurancy.

Ten Yerdy Facts

- Two hundred pages designed by priority and not in order.
- Five thousand photos sorted through.
- Two hundred working hours.
- Eleven deadlines met from September 2015 to February 2016.
- Three hundred senior images tracked and placed on the pages.
- Almost one hundred business ads and thirty parent ads designed.
- Five days turnaround of proof pages that were sent to Herff Jones Publishing plant.
- One designated week to collect business ads, parent ads, and yearbook forms.
- Forty clubs photographed in two days with over a thousand members.
- Eight wonderful staff members, two advisors and one yearbook lady (Susan Happel) who dedicated their time for you!

Madison Cole

As one chapter closes and another one opens, I hope it is just as good as the last! I am so very proud of you and all that you have accomplished!

Love you to the moon and back.

Love you to the moon and back. Mom, Peter and Peyton

Dustin Ludwig

To my amazing son Dustin,

You have blessed my life with your kind and caring soul, your incredible intellect, and your passion to succeed in life in all that you do. I have been so proud to watch you grow these last 18 years into a fine young man. Now it is your time to go make a positive impact on the world, I have no doubt you will. Your Loving Dad

Dustin.

Your Proud Mom

There are so many things I want to say but I do not know where to start. From sports to academics to outside the classroom, you have accomplished so many great things already in your life, and you continue to amaze me every day. You have already shown your ability to accomplish anything you set your mind to, and I cannot wait to see what you accomplish in the future. You have grown into such an amazing young man and I am proud to call myself your mother. Don't ever let anyone tell you that you can't achieve your dreams! I love you, son.

PILLARS OF CREATION In honor of the 25" anniversary of the Hubble space telescope, scientists captured a more recent image of Eagle Nebula's iconic sight of cold gas lit up by stars.

GUN RIGHTS VS GUN CONTROL Debates continued, deaths mounted and protests focused continued attention on the issue. With many mass shootings and a single-day record of 185,345 background checks for prospective gun buyers on Black Friday, the topic was ever-present. MAJOR,INCIDENTS Mass shootings at a state-run developmental facility in San Bernadino, CA; a Planned Parenthood clinic in Colorado Springs; a community college in Roseburg, OR; military centers in Chattanooga, TN and a Charleston, SC church were deadly. #BLACKLIVESMATTER Because additional high-profile cases involving police-related deaths occurred, protests and debate about law enforcement and race relations continued.

REACTION & ACTION

THE CONTENTIOUS DEBATE SURROUNDING SYRIAN REFUGEES AND THEIR ACCEPTANCE IN THE US CONTINUED, WITH 31 STATES REJECTING THE IDEA.

In September, the Obama administration announced plans to increase the number of worldwide refugees accepted into the United States each year from 70,000 to 85,000 in 2016 and by another 15,000 in 2017. According to Secretary of State John Kerry. this step "is in keeping with the best tradition of America as a land of second chances and a beacon of hope." Other world leaders also announced aid for the estimated 4.5 million Syrians who have fled their homeland since the civil war there began in 2011; Canada, France and Germany revealed plans to resettle families who continue to flee Syria — where healthcare, education systems, and other infrastructure have been destroyed and the economy is shattered.

"WHEN TRAGEDY STRUCK THAT EVENING, OUR HEARTS BROKE, TOO."
-PRESIDENT OBAMA

November 13 was a devastating evening for the entire world as tragedy struck in Paris, France. A series of carefully orchestrated attacks took place in the City of Love and its Northern suburb, Saint-Denis, Suicide bombings and mass shootings in the streets, restaurants, a concert hall and the Stade de France ensued; a final count of 130 people were killed, and hundreds of others injured. French President François Hollande quickly declared a state of emergency and French government tightened border controls. The attacks subsequently heightened terror alerts worldwide, as militant group ISIS claimed responsibility, releasing propaganda videos threatening forthcoming attacks in other parts of the world. Thereafter the French military conducted a series of airstrikes on Syria. Nearly a week later, ringleader of the attacks. Abdelhamid Abaaoud was tracked down and killed in a dramatic raid. Support worldwide was extended and a stronger fight against ISIS was collectively at the forefront.

TWIN SUICIDE BOMBINGS The deadliest attack on Turkish soil killed more than 90 individuals during a peace march in the capital of Ankara, nearly three weeks before national elections. The two bombs detonated seconds apart and were thought to target a rally of pro-Kurdish activists. ISIS didn't claim responsibility but did remain a prime suspect. GREECE BAILOUT The country, whose debt crisis began in 2010, received their third bailout in five years. Prime Minister Alexis Tsipras resigned, called for new elections following the 86 billion euro bailout and, again, was sworn in as Greece's leader on September 21. PACIFIC TRADE DEAL The Trans-Pacific Partnership involved 12 countries and aimed to strengthen economic ties, lessen tariffs, encourage growth and potentially create a single market like that of the EU.

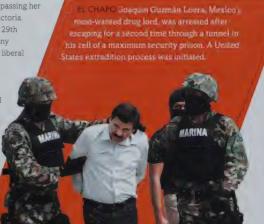

GERMAN AIRBUS CRASH Germanwings A320 crashed into the French Alps in March killing all 150 passengers onboard. The investigation was ongoing, but it was clear that Captain Patrick Sonderheimer left the cockpit for unknown reasons and co-pilot Andreas Lubitz did not respond to his knocks on the cockpit door as he tried to return; the plane's tragic and drastic descent began simultaneously. HAJJ STAMPEDE More than 2,100 people were trampled and killed in Saudi Arabia near a holy site during the hajj, an annual Islamic pilgrimage to Mecca, after two enormous waves of Muslim pilgrims collided. The 5-day religious journey is required of all Muslims at least once in their lifetime, and drew nearly 2 million pilgrims from more than 180 countries in 2015, METROJET FLIGHT 9268 Militant group ISIS released a statement claiming responsibility for the Russian plane that crashed over Egypt's Sinai Peninsula on October 31, killing 224 passengers on board. ISIS later published a photo in their online magazine Dabiq of the supposed bomb that caused the crash: a soda can pictured with two simple additional components that would have been the detonator and a switch.

QUEEN ELIZABETH II In September, Her Majesty became the longest-reigning monarch in 1,000 years of British history, surpassing her great, great grandmother Queen Victoria. MALCOLM TURNBULL Australia's 29th elected Prime Minister defeated Tony Abbott and promised a 'thoroughly liberal government.' MAURICIO MACRI Elected as Argentina's president in December, he was the first democratically-elected, non-radical or Peronist president since 1916. JUSTIN TRUDEAU Canada elected this teacher their new Prime Minister, His father, Pierre Trudeau, filled the office twice.

human consumption was approved in November. AquaBounty Technologies was behind the innovative salmon that they claimed would be just as safe as farm-raised fish, but would grow faster and in half the time. S POSITIVITY The fast food chain gained publicity after launching (a very successful) all-day breakfast menu; momentum continued as they announced a campaign to benefit refugees, and were in the news yet again when a pay-it-forward chain of 250 customers began in a Florida drivethrough during the holidays. NUMERO UNO At risk of demolition, Taco Bell's first 1962 store was moved 45 miles from its Downey, CA location to company headquarters in Irvine, CA. Meanwhile, the chain opened its first store in Tokyo, making it only the second location in Japan. In June, the FDA gave the food industry a deadline of three years to completely rid foods of trans fats, a leading cause of heart disease in the United States, #RAINCHECK Chipotle's reputation suffered after E. coli, Salmonella and Norovirus outbreaks were all linked to the restaurant in separate areas of the US. In an effort to regain trust, they held companywide food safety meetings during lunch hours on February 8; shortly after, the chain offered free burritos to those who texted "RainCheck" to 888222 for the inconvenience.
